Binghamton has designed study abroad programs that offer coursework which complement many of our students’ majors, but we recognize that we can’t be in all countries or meet all the study abroad interests of students. Here are a selection of programs that may be of interest to Binghamton students offered through the SUNY campuses.

BINGHAMTON PROGRAMS

Soochow University
Students study at the School of Overseas Education with other international students about the language, history, and culture of China. They live in on-campus residence halls for foreign students, dine in campus cafeterias, and can participate in any university activities. Students with sufficiently proficient Mandarin may enroll in regular university coursework in a wide variety of fields.

Chinese Business Language and Culture at Fudan University
This unique summer program offers students hands-on experience in business and marketing research in Shanghai. Fudan University, one of China’s most prestigious institutions of higher learning, has specially designed this six-week program for Binghamton University students. The curriculum includes rigorous courses in Advanced Chinese, Business Chinese, and a variety of Topics courses focusing on areas such as Hot Spots in the Chinese Economy, Chinese Business Strategies, and Business Case Studies, all to be taught in Chinese.

Understanding Contemporary China
The College of Community and Public Affairs again offers a faculty-led tour to China. This tour is part of a 3-credit winter intersession course which is suitable for undergraduate and graduate students with an interest in learning about the opportunities and challenges facing modern China. The program gives students the chance to learn about Chinese culture in both an academic setting and first-hand experiences, through seminars led by Shenzhen University faculty on topics ranging from China’s economy to Chinese foreign policy, field trips to places such as the Shenzhen Museum, hands on activities such as calligraphy, and Mandarin language lessons. (Offered only in alternating years).

Find all of the SUNY offerings at: www.suny.edu/studyabroad

For more details about individual programs:
Visit the website of the sponsoring SUNY campus. Call or email the sponsoring campus’ study abroad office to talk to an advisor for more program materials or get contact information for a student who has participated in the program.

Office of International Programs
Library North Ground 300
www.binghamton.edu/oip
oip@binghamton.edu

Walk-in advising daily from 2-3 pm
Soochow University

Students study at the School of Overseas Education with other international students about the language, history, and culture of China. They live in on-campus residence halls for foreign students, dine in campus cafeterias, and can participate in any university activities. Students with sufficiently proficient Mandarin may enroll in regular university coursework in a wide variety of fields.

Chinese Business Language and Culture at Fudan University

This unique summer program offers students hands-on experience in business and marketing research in Shanghai. Fudan University, one of China's most prestigious institutions of higher learning, has specially designed this six-week program for Binghamton University students. The curriculum includes rigorous courses in Advanced Chinese, Business Chinese, and a variety of Topics courses focusing on areas such as Hot Spots in the Chinese Economy, Chinese Business Strategies, and Business Case Studies, all to be taught in Chinese.

Understanding Contemporary China

The College of Community and Public Affairs again offers a faculty-led tour to China. This tour is part of a 3-credit winter intersession course which is suitable for undergraduate and graduate students with an interest in learning about the opportunities and challenges facing modern China. The program gives students the chance to learn about Chinese culture in both an academic setting and first-hand experiences, through seminars led by Shenzhen University faculty on topics ranging from China's economy to Chinese foreign policy, field trips to places such as the Shenzhen Museum, hands on activities such as calligraphy, and Mandarin language lessons. (Offered only in alternating years).

Fudan University (Albany)

Students can choose to take the Intensive Chinese language track to focus on the language study or the Chinese Studies' track where they can study the Chinese language while taking courses in English. Intensive language study track (Mandarin Chinese): reading, writing, speaking, and listening taught as separate subjects at all levels. Fields of study include Chinese, culture; also engineering, fine arts, history, humanities, language study, literature, and natural and physical sciences in Chinese.

The Chinese University of Hong Kong (Stony Brook)

The Chinese University of Hong Kong's general education courses broaden students' interests, widen their perspectives, and develop their ability to face the challenges of contemporary life. CUHK offers studies in English in seven faculties - Arts, Business Administration, Education, Engineering, Medicine, Science and Social Science, and the new School of Law. Students enroll directly in University courses along with Chinese and other international students.

Beijing Normal University (Albany)

Beijing Normal University offers semester or year-long study abroad options for international students to study Mandarin Chinese intensively. Reading, writing, speaking, and listening are taught as separate subjects at all levels. Fields of study include Chinese language, culture, humanities, and literature. All courses are taught in Chinese. Participants live in international student dormitories on campus.

Internship and Chinese Language in Shanghai (Stony Brook)

Students will have the opportunity to complete a business internship while taking Chinese courses at Shanghai Lake Malaren International Convention Center. After short-term training, participants will be placed in various administrative departments working with Chinese staff.

*Remember, this is not a full listing of all the programs offered through the SUNY system. For a full listing of the offerings, please visit: www.suny.edu/studyabroad