Japan & Korea

OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH SUNY

STUDY ABROAD IT’S EASIER THAN YOU THINK!

Binghamton has designed study abroad programs that offer coursework which complement many of our students’ majors, but we recognize that we can’t be in all countries or meet all the study abroad interests of students. Here are a selection of programs that may be of interest to Binghamton students offered through the SUNY campuses.

BINGHAMTON PROGRAMS

Kokugakuin University
Students enroll in the K-STEP Program (Kokugakuin Short-Term Exchange Program). The objective of this program is for students to develop Japanese language skills while also receiving an enhanced introduction to Japanese culture in a university setting.

Korea University
The highly prestigious Korea University is renowned for its academic excellence and innovation. Korea University offers two tracks to students on the Binghamton exchange: a university-wide program and a program sponsored by the Business School for SOM students only.

KAIST (Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology)
One of Asia’s top engineering and technology schools, this program offers students coursework in English are available in the Colleges of Natural Sciences, Life Sciences & Bioengineering, Engineering, Information Science and Technology, Cultural Science, and Business

OTHER SUNY SEMESTER & ACADEMIC YEAR PROGRAMS

Akita International University (Oswego)
All courses are taught in English in the fields of Japanese studies, global studies, global business, liberal arts, and the Japanese language.

Kansai Gaidai University Exchange (Albany)
This program offers students the opportunity to study Asian studies, economics and business, history, Japanese language and literature, politics and society with courses taught in English.

University of Tsukuba (Oswego)
Students enroll in a special program designed for the study of Japanese language and culture. Students can apply for a special scholarship offered by the Japanese government.

For more details about individual programs:
Visit the website of the sponsoring SUNY campus. Call or email the sponsoring campus' study abroad office to talk to an advisor for more program materials or get contact information for a student who has participated in the program.

Find all of the SUNY offerings at: www.suny.edu/studyabroad

Office of International Programs
Library North Ground 300
www.binghamton.edu/oip
oip@binghamton.edu
Walk-in advising daily from 2-3 pm

Walk-in advising daily from 2-3 pm
Waseda University (Stony Brook)
Waseda University’s reputation in Japan as one of the most prestigious universities in the country stem from its excellence in education and research. Programs are taught entirely in English.

Ewha Womans University (Stony Brook)
The co-ed international exchange program is open to students without prior knowledge of Korean. Course taught in English in the fields of anthropology, archaeology, architecture, business, economics, fine, visual, and performing arts, history, humanities, interior design, language study, linguistics, literature, philosophy, religion and social sciences.

Seoul National University, School of International and Area Studies (Stony Brook)
The co-ed international exchange program is open to students without prior knowledge of Korean. Course taught in English in the fields of anthropology, economics, history, international business, Japanese language, Korean language, and political science.

Yonsei University Exchange (Albany)
This undergraduate exchange program offers students the opportunity to study anthropology, art history, business, economics, history, law, and philosophy taught in English.

*Remember, this is not a full listing of all the programs offered through the SUNY system. For a full listing of the offerings, please visit: www.suny.edu/studyabroad

OTHER SUNY SUMMER PROGRAMS

Akita International University (Oswego)
Students will participate in AIU’s Intensive Japanese Language program designed to improve language skills in a small classroom setting over a period of six weeks, while participating in various campus and off-campus cultural activities.

Korea University International Summer Campus (Buffalo)
This six-week program includes over 100 challenging courses taught by distinguished faculty from prestigious universities around the world. The courses cover a wide range of subjects pertaining to international issues, which a particular emphasis on the East Asian region, including history, culture, society, politics, economics, law, business management, science and art/design.