Binghamton has designed study abroad programs that offer coursework which complement many of our students’ majors, but we recognize that we can’t be in all counties or meet all the study abroad of interests of students. Here are a selection of programs that may be of interest to Binghamton students offered through the SUNY campuses.

SEMESTER & ACADEMIC YEAR PROGRAMS

University of Siena (Buffalo)
Students directly enroll at the University of Siena and take courses taught in Italian in a wide variety of fields.

Bocconi University (Albany)
Located in Milan, take courses taught in English in economics, management, marketing, finance, culture, media, public administration, public policy, other social sciences and law.

University of Urbino (New Paltz)
Enroll in intensive Italian language courses and regular university courses in business, economics, history, humanities, literature, and social studies. This program also features field trips to Venice, Rome, Florence, Gubbio, and Assisi.

Scuola Lorenzo de Medici (Broome Community College)
Choose to participate in one of 3 programs: Art and Art History, Italian Civilization and Culture, or Italian Language and Culture.

Florence Internships (Brockport)
This program is designed to give students a chance to become immersed in Italian culture while learning how Italians live and work.

Florence University of the Arts (Stony Brook)
Students take 6 credits of intensive language and at least 6 credits from a wide variety of courses in the humanities, fine arts, social sciences and natural sciences.

Find all of the SUNY offerings at: www.suny.edu/studyabroad

For more details about individual programs:
Visit the website of the sponsoring SUNY campus. Call or email the sponsoring campus’ study abroad office to talk to an advisor for more program materials or get contact information for a student who has participated in the program.

Office of International Programs
Library North Ground 300
www.binghamton.edu/oip
oip@binghamton.edu

Walk-in advising daily from 2-3 pm
OTHER SUNY SEMESTER & ACADEMIC YEAR PROGRAMS CONTINUED

Univerisità Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan (Albany)
The exchange option offers courses taught in English in a variety of academic areas and Italian language classes at most levels.

American University of Rome, International Business and International Relations (Broome Community College)
Courses in business, comparative government, economics, and politics as well as language instruction.

American University of Rome, Italian Civilization and Culture (Broome Community College)
This program offers coursework with an emphasis on the history, humanities, and Italian culture, civilization, and language.

Siena Program (Buffalo)
While living with Sienese families and participating actively in the community, students attend small classes in art and architecture, history, language and literature taught in English.

*Remember, this is not a full listing of all the programs offered through the SUNY system. For a full listing of the offerings, please visit: www.suny.edu/studyabroad

OTHER SUNY SUMMER PROGRAMS

Scuola Lorenzo de Medici (Broome Community College)
This program offers courses in history, language, restoration, studio art, and art history during (3) four-week terms.

Scuola Lorenzo de Medici - Tuscania (Broome Community College)
Scuola Lorenzo de Medici has expanded to a second location in the small, authentic town of Tuscania and offers courses in Italian language, art, and culture.

American University of Rome (Broome Community College)
This program has two sessions, in June and July, and has an emphasis on humanities and language. Limited selection of courses.

Humanities I in Rome (Geneseo)
This four-week program offers a course that ranges from the the Ancient World to the Renaissance. It is a search for moral, social, and political alternatives and meaning, embodied in the institutions, culture and literature of Western Civilization from its beginnings to 1600.

Medieval and Renaissance Italian City States (Geneseo)
Students examine the political, social, economic, religious, and cultural history of Italian city-states, particularly those in Tuscany with a special emphasis on Siena.