ISRAEL
OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH SUNY
STUDY ABROAD IT’S EASIER THAN YOU THINK!

Binghamton has designed study abroad programs that offer coursework which complement many of our students’ majors, but we recognize that we can’t be in all countries or meet all the study abroad interests of students. Here are a selection of programs that may be of interest to Binghamton students offered through the SUNY campuses.

OTHER SUNY PROGRAMS

Ben Gurion University (Albany)
Students choose from a variety of courses including Judaic Studies and Modern Israel or select their own program from courses offered at the School for Overseas Students. Additional fields of study include agriculture, anthropology, archeology, ecology, education, environmental studies, fine arts, Hebrew, Bedouin and Falashas cultures, history, humanities, language study, literature, natural and physical sciences, philosophy, political science, religion, social sciences, and sociology.

University of Haifa (Albany)
Students choose from a variety of courses including psychology, archeology, communications, English literature, Hebrew/Arabic culture, history, humanities, language study, law, literature, marine archeology, philosophy, politics, religion, and sociology. Volunteer opportunities, internships, and an honors program in psychology are available for qualified students.

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem (Albany)
Students choose from a variety of courses in Judaic Studies and Modern Israel or select their own program from courses offered at the Rothberg School for Overseas Students. Additional fields of study include agriculture, anthropology, archeology, business, earth sciences, ecology, economics, environmental studies, fine arts, geography, Hebrew and Arabic culture, history, humanities, language study, law, literature, natural science, philosophy, physical sciences, political science, psychology, religion, social sciences, sociology, and women's studies. Hebrew University requires students to enroll in a Hebrew language course each semester.

Tel Aviv University (Albany)
Students choose from a variety of courses in archeology, business, ecology, economics, environmental studies, fine arts, Hebrew/Arabic culture, history, humanities, language, law, literature, natural and physical sciences, philosophy, politics, religion, and women's studies. Volunteer opportunities and an honors program in Middle Eastern and Israeli studies available for qualified students.

Find all of the SUNY offerings at: www.suny.edu/studyabroad

For more details about individual programs:
Visit the website of the sponsoring SUNY campus. Call or email the sponsoring campus’ study abroad office to talk to an advisor for more program materials or get contact information for a student who has participated in the program.

Office of International Programs
Library North Ground 300
www.binghamton.edu/oip
oip@binghamton.edu
Walk-in advising daily from 2-3 pm